National Treasure Matsue Castle

Shiomi Nawate Street

Foreign travelers who fill out a short survey will enjoy ¥1,000 one-way fare on the highway bus from Hiroshima to Matsue. Come visit a side of Japan you've always dreamed of, where the quaint Edo period atmosphere surrounding Matsue Castle—one of Japan's twelve remaining original castles and a National Treasure—is also rich with ghost stories and ancient mythology.

Travelers eligible for the ¥1,000 one-way fare

- Those visiting Japan on a "short-term stay" visa
- Those who fill out the aforementioned survey
(You will be given the survey when purchasing the bus ticket at the window. Please hand the survey to the bus driver when you reach your destination.)

Terms of Use

- Applicable for the ¥1,000 one-way fare from Hiroshima to Matsue, or from Matsue to Hiroshima.
- This ¥1,000 one-way fare is only available to customers that purchase their ticket directly at one of the ticket windows listed. Not applicable when paying by cash on the bus.
- Please present your passport at the ticket window.
Only travelers with a "short-term stay" seal in their passport are eligible for the ¥1,000 one-way fare.
- You can purchase your ticket up to 1 week in advance at the ticket counter, but you cannot reserve a ticket by phone or online.
- All highway bus seats are treated as reserved seating. During busy periods, please note that seats may be fully booked.
- Please see the highway bus schedule at the ticket window and tell the clerk what day and time you will ride.
- Credit cards accepted at the ticket windows. For more information, please check at the ticket window.
- See reverse side for information on ticket windows and bus stops.
